Synopsis

For a wealthy ancient Egyptian, death is not the end: your body must be prepared for the afterlife. But it's a fairly disgusting business, and you can't be sure that you will always be treated with respect.

Customer Reviews

Very engaging visually and filled with fascinating facts. My 9 year old loves this book and quickly shares what he has learned. He normally doesn't gravitate towards books but this one he even takes in the car with him. Highly recommend.

I use this book in conjunction with a variety of resources in an Ancient Egyptian unit. This book, by far, is a 3rd grade class favorite. Most of the mummy facts my students hand on to are the gross or unusual ones they find in this book. It's a fun read, but PACKED full of info.

I must day that the making of a mummy is not my favorite subject. I really like this series (I read the You Wouldn't Want to be a Sumerian Slave by Jaqueline Morley)and the little extra facts and whatnot around the pages. It is a great book for those interested in this topic, but some parts were a little gross to me. All around it was a good book, though.

Very happy with my purchase

Extremely disgusting and kind of creepy I did not enjoy it very well because it tells how they mummified it.
