Customer Reviews

When our children accepted Christ at the kitchen table on a Monday, I was so excited that I didn't think about the next step. A friend who was a minister reminded me that it was time for Baptism. Our church didn't have a new Believers class that explained everything, so I turned to for help. This is a great book which really broke things down. The one caveat is that it is geared to the 7th Day Adventist faith. Wish I would have known that part up front. All other aspects of the book were great and my husband and I made sure our kids knew that our beliefs were slightly different as it related to what day we attended church services.

Kid friendly!
